

Appraisal Process

Appraisal at Affine

- ❑ Objective assessment of how a professional is performing, subject to a specified job description or role
- ❑ Performance Evaluation based on expectations of the organization for relevant role
- ❑ Evaluation of alignment of skillsets to the requirements of the role or project
- ❑ Contribution of the individual to the deliverables and the project overall
- ❑ Managers help frame career objectives – in line with individual's expectations

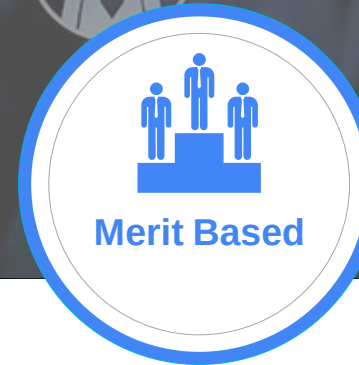

Appraisal @ Affine

- Assessment based on individual project, situation, role requirements and expectations

- Non comparative evaluation – 'absolute' evaluation
- Evident by the number of high performers across appraisal cycles

- Equal weightage imparted to aptitude and attitude
- Aptitude as per skillset, acumen
- Attitude towards org, work, colleagues

- Feedback collated across designations
- Appraisal discussed and agreed upon unanimously amongst senior management

Ratings and Promotions

POOR

- Person has not been able to meet expectations
- Skillsets and/or attitude is misaligned
- Affine may not be the right place for individual's career

PARTIALLY MEETS EXPECTATIONS

- Below par skillset level
- Attitude not aligned with Org expectations
- Person not performing to desired level consistently

MEETS EXPECTATIONS

- Consistently flawless delivery and attitude
- Organization is happy with performance
- At respective designation, the person is performing at the level expected by Org

EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS

- Exceptional performer – consistency, quality and attitude
- Contributes to Org over and above project consistently
- Client vouches for individual

OUTSTANDING

- Role Model at respective designation with glimpses of next level
- Flawless performer – delivering high quality work ALWAYS
- Indispensable to project or workstream
- Contributes to Org Level activities

- Promotions not just contingent on ratings
- Involves more subjective evaluations than appraisal process. Readiness for next role and professional maturity play role
- Collective feedback from all managers taken into account

Appraisal Process

01 TEMPLATE UPDATION

- Update the self appraisal template with the appropriate option from the dropdown
- Update the comments section with examples and comments

02 SEND TEMPLATE

- Send the template to your manager and the HR team within the pre-decided deadline

04 MANAGER'S ASSESSMENT

- Manager will update the sheet with the agreed assessment
- Manager will send final and completed sheet to the HR
- Manager will update comments section with corrective measures and plan

03 DISCUSSION

- Following self assessment, there will be a discussion with people manager, project leads and project manager
- Ratings and Promotions will not be discussed in these meetings

Eligibility:

Year End Appraisal : Full Time Employees in the system as of 31st Dec of respective fiscal year (employees joining between Jan-Mar will be given a rating)

Mid Year Appraisal : Full Time Employees in the system as of 30th Jun of respective fiscal year

Things to Remember

01

- Don't wait till the last day
- Fill in with examples of good work and improvement areas

02

- Fill the template relevant to your department (delivery, onsite or support)
- Fill out using the right tab based on your designation

03

- Aptitude and Attitude have equal weightage
- Each of the KPIs have a score associated, and an associated weightage for KRA

04

- The ratings – 1 to 5 are not cardinal or percentage values
- They are an assessment of current job responsibilities

05

- For Associates and Sr Associates, Consultants will be part of the discussions
- Do not forget Minutes of Meeting

Thank you.

affineanalytics.com